DEATH OF REV. SAMUEL A. RHEA, -This they need any thing in his line. week, we have the painful intelligence of the death of the Rev. Samuel A. Rhea, Missionary for the last fifteen years and upwards, in Persia. He died very suddenly on the 2d. of Sept., on the road from Tabrez, in the prossecution of his Mission, leaving a wife and two small children to mourn their be-

What has become of the improvements commenced on our streets? Nothing has been done for some time in that line. While the gutters are growing deeper, the accumulation of dirt and filth on the streets and alleys is still on the increase, and nobody to blame. Have we such a thing as a Corporation? and what is it going to do with the neglected condition of our streets. Echo says " nothing more." We hope to see the work res umed by the proper authoritiesand " go bravely on. "

* CHANCERY COURT .- This tribunal is in session in this place this week, Hon. Seth J. W. Lucky presiding. The usual amount of business is progressing, and the legal professiness is progressing, and the legal profes-sion is well represented among those pres-announce the entire evacuation of Mexico ent we may mention, J. A. R. Nelson, of Knoxville, and Robert Love, Esq. of Carter County.

RAIL ROAD ACTIVITY.-The activity in the freight department of the East Tennessee & Va., Railroad at this time, was scarcely ever excelled before the war. Everything is bustle and industry. The managers of the Road, are pushing their repairs to depots, bridges, and other delapidated portions of the Road to completion, and more energy could not be displayed. Success to the President, Superintendent, and other managers of the road for their enterprising efforts.

THANKS .- Hon, P. P. C. Nelson, State Senstor, from this District, Hon. L. M. Jarvis, Representative from the county of Hancock,

TO THE YOUNG LADIES AND GENTLEMEN OF-Jonesnono'.-- We are requested to say, that a meeting will be held by the young ladies and gentlemen of Jonesboro', at the Odd Fel low's Institute on Friday evening next at half past 7 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a Literary Society for the mutual improvement of the members. This is an excellent move, and we sincerely hope there will be a full attendance. A Society of this kind will be of vast importance to the youth of our town, and we hope to see it flourishing.

WE are glad; yea, greatly rejoiced at the improvement in the morals of our town. It now begins to seem a little more like the pleasant, quiet place of years agone. If only a few of our friends would knock the "bung-hole" out of their barrels and let the " red-eve" go free-let it go down the gutter instead of man and "red-eye" together .-We trust the time is coming when the friends can make a living without engaging in this traffic. Already we have learned of a change in sentiment in some, and we hope soon to hear a better report from them. Each eitizen should now emulate his fellow man in trying to add to the happiness of all. Come friends, let us all be up and doing-ever laboring for the good of our fellows.

Ber THERE seems to be a great interest taken now, all over the land in every thing that will aid in "reorganizing" society. The Church, Sabbath School, and day School seem to each, receive the first care of those who wish peace, happiness and prosperity .-Much is being done we trust, in our town for the good of the rising generation, by the Sabbath Schools. May the good work go on, and every effort be crowned with success.

Rather an amusing incident is "going the rounds." An individual who became so much interested in baving all the children attend some one of our Sabbath Schools, that he concluded to coerce them. So, arming himself with a good bickery, he sailied forth, warning parents of the dangers of raising their children without religious instructions, and that if every child large enough did not attend Sabbath School hereafter, he would return and use the aforesaid hickory.

We suppose they all appeared the next Sunday morning, "with faces clean and eyes bright," feeling better for the privilege.

It is to be hoped, that the children, with their benefactor, may enjoy these benefits here balow, and a happy re-union in the great Sabbath School above.

This eccentric movement, should prompt others to go to work in real earnest, hunting the Chancery Court at Jonesboro', on the up those who do not attend Sabbath School, and take them to one of our Schools on Sunday morning.

Much of the degradation of our country might be remedied, if all would do their duty in these respects.

FRESH DRUGS,-On visiting the Drug Store of our friend W. M. We are glad to see his prosperity, and hope our citizens will not forget him when
